

THE THIRTIES

Louis Thebaud of New Jersey was the most important importer of Brittanies in the 30's. Several of the more outstanding ones ended up with his nephew, Rene Joubert, in Michigan.

FENNTUS DE MELLINIC, owned by Rene Joubert, was the first Brittany to win a first place in mixed breed competition. She won three placements and was the dam of five field winners, one by Fanche du Cosquerou and the others by Fanche's Bravo. Her first litter, sired by Hai du Cosquerou, consisted of a single pup that was given to the publisher of the AMERICAN FIELD.

FANCHE DU COSQUEROU was the first Brittany to place in a field trial in the United States, in 1935, in a Shooting Dog Stake in a New Jersey trial.

French Champion GWENNEC DE L'ARGOAT, whelped in 1932, was imported in 1936, after having done very well in his home country. Gwennec was claimed to be the ideal in appearance, just what a show Brittany should be. He was used extensively at stud (for those days) and almost all the early field winners had his blood close up.

Among his more famous offspring were Ch. Patrice de Sharvogue, Ch. Jeffrey de Klememor and Gwennec's Pascey.

Gwennec placed once in a field trial, an equal third in the first All-Brittany Shooting Dog Stake in 1939.
